OPERA SOFTWARE

The company searched long and hard for a building that would encompass the values of their brand. After finding the perfect spot a prestigious and historic re-development from 1913, the interior had to match Opera Software's needs, "We wanted the best office in the world!" advises Director of the Opera Software Krystian Kolondra.

The final brief was to create a 'loft-style' atmosphere in-keeping with the industrial heritage, a brief that has been beautifully modified with in-cut flooring and subtle colourings.
